

FACT SHEET

Belmond British Pullman, sister train to the Venice Simplon-Orient-Express, embodies everything that was fabulous about the roaring 1920s and '30s. In their heyday, these authentic carriages formed part of the most famous and luxurious services in Britain—The Bournemouth Belle, The Brighton Belle, The Queen of Scots and The Golden Arrow. Today, each carriage has been lovingly restored and refurbished, so that you too can experience the glamour of vintage rail travel.

THE JOURNEY

Based in the South East of England, Belmond British Pullman has regular departures out of London Victoria Station with occasional departures from other stations nationwide. With destinations such as Goodwood Revival, Historic Bath, Chatsworth House and experiences including Valentine's Day and "The Dinner" in association with celebrity chefs, Belmond British Pullman makes every trip a unique experience and every journey one of true elegance.

SEASON: FEBRUARY – DECEMBER

SUGGESTED JOURNEYS

- City Visits: Bath, Canterbury
- Round-trip lunch journeys
- Exclusive dining experiences

HIGHLIGHTED JOURNEYS

Much to the success of previous "The Dinner" journeys we are continuing our glamorous evening soiree on rails, hosted by well-known chefs. Enjoy a cocktail reception party followed by a seasonal tasting menu, paired with our sommelier's choice of wines, in a completely unique venue.

For a truly British experience why not join the luxurious Belmond British Pullman to some of Britain's best-preserved cities including day trips to Canterbury and Bath. Celebrate that special occasion on one of our Valentine's Day, Mother's Day, Christmas and New Year journeys, or enjoy one of our themed journeys such as Murder Mystery Lunches, Celebrity Chef dinners and Golden Age of Travel steam-hauled excursions.

TYPICAL CAPACITY

Number of Passengers:	226
Passenger carriages:	11

TRAIN CONFIGURATION: At any given time, we operate up to 10 passenger carriages.

Our four different styles of Pullman carriages seat between 20 and 26 passengers with seating combinations of tables for one, two, three and four (tables of four are in private compartments). At busy times, parties of two may be seated sharing a table of four with another party of two. For a little more privacy, why not select a private compartment for two? LIFE ON BOARD CARRIAGES Each Belmond British Pullman carriage is unique, bearing its own name as well as a colourful history. Lovingly refurbished, their exquisite design and workmanship is legendary.

Veneered panels gleam. Art Deco lamps shed soft light on polished brass, bevelled glass and glossy mahogany fittings, while the unique armchairs provide comfortable and intimate dining.

DECADENT DINING Dining on Belmond British Pullman is pure indulgence, with innovative dishes and excellent wines served by your steward. Each menu is lovingly conceived by our chef using the finest British ingredients. His passion is fuelled by knowing he is a part of making someone's special occasion extraordinary.

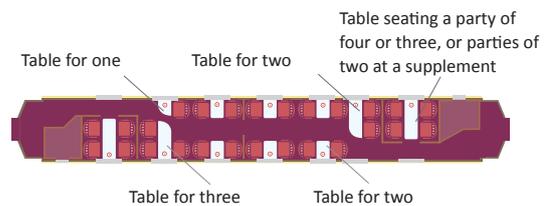

Each meal is accompanied by the finest wines and champagnes, expertly selected by our sommelier.

DRESS CODE Smart day wear is requested for our journeys. For Dinner departures and for social sporting events such as Glorious Goodwood, passengers may prefer to wear more formal attire. Travel documentation will advise any specific dress codes.

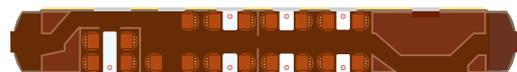

BOUTIQUE Onboard there is a boutique which is the ideal place to purchase a memento of your journey on Belmond British Pullman. The boutique offers a rich variety of traditional British crafts.

EXTENSIONS

Our day trips and short breaks are entirely flexible: enjoy a train journey on its own or we can organise an extended experience with an overnight stay. We recommend the following hotels:

- The Goring

Opened in 1910, this quiet refuge in Victoria is the only family-run five-star hotel in London. Close to Buckingham Palace and Belgravia, it offers elegant surroundings and personal service. Its Dining Room, serving fine British cuisine, was designed by Lord Linley.

- The Ritz London

Elegant rooms and attentive service make for a memorable stay at this hotel located on Piccadilly. The restaurant is called by many the most beautiful in London.
